The woman later received an email believed to be from an overseas courier company asking her to confirm her name, address and telephone number, he said. style="text-align: justify;">He said the woman then received a phone call from a cargo agent informing her that there was a package for her and that she would have to pay for the process of acquiring the package. She then made five transactions amounting to RM64,207 to several account numbers given by the suspect. <spa font-family: arial, helvetica, sans-serif;">He said the victim only realised she had been duped after failing to contact the man or the agent from the cargo company before lodging a police report yesterday. - Bernama $ Source: https://www.thesundaily.my/local/woman-loses-over-rm64000-in-parcel-scam-FE7350689
