

Malay Mail : Fight against scam sparks fallout

Written by Administrator

Monday, 14 September 2009 10:58 -

Under the knife interview of Roslan Mahyudin (Director General Enforcement ◆ Ministry of Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs) and Darshan Singh (Director, National Consumer Complaints Center (NCCC). Interview appeared in the Weekend Mail ◆ 6/10/2007.Fight against scam sparks falloutDomestic Trade and Consumer Affairs Ministry director-general of enforcement Mohd Roslan Mahayudin recently branded the National Consumer Complaints Centre as an "empty vessel" for making a lot of noise over the scratch-and-win scam and told the centre to bring the matter up the ministry instead. NCCC director Darshan Singh, however, insisted that it is their duty to make noise for the benefit of consumers.